

SHORT Book review: We are all different

Anti-racist religious education

RE TODAY AND NATRE WORKING WITH THE FREE CHURCHES GROUP AND METHODIST SCHOOLS

We are all different by Twinkl

Review by: Caroline Featherstone

Review

'We are all different' is a book created by Twinkl [and] is great for younger children showing them that we are indeed all different, it goes through who they live with, what colour they like, what they like to eat and finishes off with the phrase we may all be different but we are friends. It is aimed at FS and KS1.

